

One day Educational trip was organized by Botany Department for B.Sc. students on 26th February 2017 visited Kolar milk dairy. They got an on hand experience of making khova, ghee, butter and other processing and packaging of milk products. On the way students visited different crop fields like radish, tomato, potato and collected pathological specimens for making Herbarium.

