

NSS Volunteers carried out Plant reallocating activity week on the college campus to create awareness amongst students and residents. As a part of it 15 different plants were shifted to suitable places.

