

Educational Visit to Indian Institute of Science, Bengaluru
ON OPEN DAY – MARCH 4, 2017

Students and faculty members of Physical Science Departments visited Indian Institute of Science. The sequential visit to various departments are as mentioned below:

JRD TATA MEMORIAL LIBRARY: Students visited the library and saw the collections of various research papers arranged year wise.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS: Attended seminar on LHC in the department auditorium. They witnessed and participated in the experiments showing the Law of conservation of momentum, magnetic levitating train model using super conducting material, Bernoulli's theorem, relativity, liquid magnet, etc.

CENTRE FOR NANO SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING:

The students witnessed the Nano chips fabricated by CenSe, IISc, under Optical microscope. The fabrication of Nano chips were shown in clean room using different instruments and techniques

CL
NC

AIR FIELD NEAR AEROSPACE DEPARTMENT: The Air show was under progress. Students witnessed the functioning of Drone and how to locate objects using the coordinates.

ADMINISTRATIVE BLOCK: The life of Dr. A P J Abdul Kalam was exhibited in the form of posters.

