

On the sidelines of catering to the academic needs of the have-nots, Al-Ameen Arts, Science and Commerce College has also been on the forefront to shoulder Corporate Social Responsibility. Realizing the significance of healthcare to the downtrodden, the college, in collaboration with Narayana Health, Naari Foundation, organized an “All Under One Roof” mega health camp for the benefit of the public.

It had the facilities of Cancer detection, eye-checkup, dental checkup, blood donation and general health and cancer detection screening. Those who required further treatment were referred to the hospitals concerned.

